Informing the person concerned about the processing of personal data:

Categories of Personal Data Processed and Their Source ikopo, s.r.o – JASPEL processes only those categories of personal data that are necessary for the organisation and safe execution of the 5th World Deaf Camp JASPEL 2026. The scope of processed personal data includes, in particular:

- identification data – name and surname of the participant;
- health-related information – statement of infection, medical confirmation or other mandatory medical documentation, as well as an honourable declaration where applicable;
- contact details – such as e-mail address, telephone number (collected in the registration form)

The above personal data are obtained directly from the data subject through the submission of the application form and the provision of accompanying documentation required by applicable legislation.

Purpose of the Processing of Personal Data

The personal data of participants are processed by ikopo, s.r.o – JASPEL for the purpose of safeguarding the protection of life and health of the data subject during participation in the event. The provision of such data is indispensable to ensure that, in the event of medical necessity, appropriate health care can be rendered promptly and in accordance with applicable standards.

The processing is carried out in fulfilment of legal obligations imposed on the organizer pursuant to Act No. 355/2007 Coll. on the Protection, Promotion and Development of Public Health and on Amendments to Certain Acts, § 25 concerning recovery events, under which the organizer is obliged to maintain records of the recovery event and to retain such records for a period of six (6) months following the termination of the event.

Legal Basis for the Processing of Personal Data

The processing of personal data by ikopo, s.r.o – JASPEL in connection with the organization of the 5th World Deaf Camp JASPEL 2026 is carried out on the following legal bases:

Article 6(1)(b) GDPR – processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party, namely the registration and participation of the data subject in the camp;

Article 6(1)(c) GDPR – processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject, in particular the obligations under Act No. 355/2007 Coll. on the Protection, Promotion and Development of Public Health, which requires the organiser to maintain records of recreational events for a period of six (6) months after the conclusion of the event;

Article 6(1)(d) GDPR – processing is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the data subject, specifically to ensure the provision of timely and adequate health care during the event;

Article 9(2)(a) GDPR – the explicit consent of the data subject, given by voluntarily providing health information in the application form;

Article 9(2)(c) GDPR – processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of the data subject where the subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent, for example in the case of a medical emergency;

Article 9(2)(h) GDPR – processing is necessary for the purposes of preventive or occupational medicine, medical diagnosis, or the provision of health care.

Recipients of Personal Data

The personal data provided by the data subject are processed solely for the period necessary for the organisation and completion of the event. Such data shall not be disclosed to third parties or other entities without the consent of the data subject, except in circumstances where disclosure is indispensable for the protection of the life and health of the data subject. In particular, personal data may be made available to healthcare personnel or medical facilities in the event that the provision of emergency health care is required during the course of the event.

Rights of the Data Subject

In connection with the processing of personal data, the data subject shall enjoy the rights guaranteed under Articles 12 to 22 of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (GDPR), namely:

Right to information – to receive clear, transparent and comprehensible information regarding the processing of personal data, including an explanation of rights under applicable legislation;

Security of Processing and Protection of Personal Data ikopo, s.r.o – JASPEL implements appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk, in accordance with Article 32 GDPR. Such measures are designed, in particular, to protect personal data against unauthorised access, accidental loss, alteration, disclosure or other unlawful forms of processing.

These measures include, inter alia:

- restriction of access to personal data to authorised persons only;
- technical safeguards and IT system security controls;
- the use of encryption or pseudonymisation where necessary;
- regular evaluation, testing and updating of security measures in order to ensure their continued effectiveness.

Further details on the data protection measures applied by the controller are available upon request.
